SEXY HAIR CONCEPTS

SEXY HAIR CONCEPTS is a vanguard, hairdresser-led enterprise in the professional beauty industry that is committed to enhancing the human potential of its members by creating fun new products that summon emotion, and educational systems that provoke thought and artistry. Hairstylist and business visionary, Michael O'Rourke, founded SEXY HAIR CONCEPTS by ECOLY in 1992. Having owned and operated a 35-unit successful salon chain in South Africa before coming to the United States, O'Rourke founded the Carlton Hair Care and Hair Health and Beauty Stores in Southern California, a 30-unit salon and store chain, before starting Ecoly International.

As Seen in the May '02 issue of AMERICAN SALON MAGAZINE!

The cover and several pages titled "Braid in America" feature the creative genius of Sexy Hair Concepts' founder, CEO and visionary Michael O'Rourke assisted by Creative Director Douglas Little. Quoting Michael, the article states: "These days, what's going on in the street – all the urban, punk, and ethnic influences – is having a huge impact on hair. It's not enough for hairdressers to just use linear thinking anymore. When creating looks, being multi-dimensional is key." There are several beautiful braiding styles pictured and Michael shares a few "how-to" tips for using Healthy Sexy

CA, called Institute of Courage. This institute will encourage stylists to break the boundaries of their typical styling habits and explore new boundaries of creativity. Very unique, very different, very much Michael O'Rourke!

Sexy Hair Concepts is a versatile line of hair products with a collection for virtually every hair type. Maybe you have heard of this line.. it's breaking records all over the place for unique presentation of products that really deliver the goods in hair styling.

There's news with this line -- lots of news with this line.

Anna I on Don't Stress Because It's the Pits!

1) New to the Sexy Hair Concept Team is CEO Jim Morrison --listen to the podcast and hear what Morrison is telling you about what's NEW with Sexy Hair Concepts. Originally with L'Oreal, Jim Morrison was instrumental in bringing lines to the corporate family like Redken and Kiehl's and creating a stellar line-up that has taken L'Oreal from mid-range to cutting edge in hair care. If anyone can accomplish that feat, imagine what he can do with Sexy Hair Concepts!! Innovative, sharp, on his game and ahead of the curve, this man knows the biz and has "all burners" going.

2) More NEWS!!! Repackaging of the Healthy Sexy Hair line which will include some brand new cutting-edge cosmeceutical type ingredients by the end of summer. This launch will take hair care to a new level and create new expectations in reviving dry, damaged, sun-burnt hair and turning it back into luscious locks. One of the newest products to launch in the Healthy Sexy Hair line is the Chocolate Soymilk Shampoo. Chocoholics UNITE!! This is something you have to try--NOT to drink, but to apply to hair. Your hair will look great, feel fab and smell! like chocolate!!

3) Yes!! There is MORE new.. It's really about Sexy Hair Concepts being a "SHOW-OFF".. Pushing the limits of reality TV to the very highest levels.

The Show Off – Show Us Your Sexy Hair® and Lather Yourself in Luxury .

About This Product

This is sold as a strengthening shampoo, and the front of the bottle states that it contains tritanium complex, whatever that is. It is the newest product for Sexy Hair Concepts, and it claims to:

- * Gently clean & moisturize hair
- * Restore resilience to limp hair
- * Dramatically improve's damaged, weak or fine hair
- * Provide nutrients for dry hair
- * Makes hair feel up to 7 times stronger
- * Won't weigh hair down
- * Can be used every day
- * Has a Passion Fruit Guava fragrance

Since this claimed to help damaged hair, and the owner of the beauty supply store said it would also be good for color treated hair, I had high hopes of this working for me.
